Why Are Letters Important?

Have you ever received a letter?

What was the letter about?

Did you keep the letter to share again?

Did you write back and send a reply?

Different Types of Letters

People send letters for many different reasons.

Can you think why you might send or receive a letter?

Different Types of Letters

Letters can be organised under two headings. These are called formal letters and informal letters.

Formal letters are letters which are sent to people you don't know. They can be sent for different reasons, for example to complain about something, to give or ask for information or to make an appointment. Formal letters are usually set out in a certain way.

Informal letters are letters which are sent to people you know. For example, sending a postcard telling someone about your holiday, to say, "thank you" for a birthday present or writing to friends or family who might live a long way from you.

Dear Daddy Bear,

I am writing to complain about the chairs in your sitting room. They are most uncomfortable and when I sat on one whilst visiting recently it broke. I fell and I hurt my leg! I would be most grateful if you could use stronger wood in future.

Also, I was very upset that you were cross when you saw me in your house. If you do not wish to have visitors (even people you do not know) then you should not leave your front door unlocked.

Yours Sincerely

Dear Daisy

How are you? We are at the seaside!
It has been like a dream and very nice weather too. What a treat! We have had ice cream every day and my Mum said maybe I can go on a donkey tomorrow and she will teach me to swim, what a week it's been!
We've spent lots of money as it isn't cheap and our feet are tired but it's been worth it.

Lots of love and see you soon.

May xx

Dear Santa,

I am writing to thank you for the lovely presents you left at my house on Christmas Eve. I couldn't believe my eyes when I saw them all and so beautifully wrapped. Your elves must have been very busy this year.

I especially loved the bike and have been learning how to ride it, as I haven't had one without stabilisers before. The pink helmet is a perfect fit and I wear it to protect my head when I'm on my bike in case I fall off.

My brother James loved his train set and has been playing with it everyday since you delivered it. He loves the noises it makes and connecting all of the carriages together.

I hope you and Mrs Clause have a lovely holiday and the elves and reindeers have a well deserved rest.

Love from

Daisy xx

Dear Gran,

How are you? Mum told me you haven't been feeling very well. I have baked you some of your favourite cakes and wondered when it would be possible for me to come and visit?

Hope to see you soon.

Lots of love
