'Following
Jesus in all we do'

Dear parents

14th June 2018

Next week the year group information evenings are taking place. Last year was the first time that we held these for all year groups and the feedback that we received was very positive. I do hope that this year proves to be equally informative for you as your child moves into the next year of their education. These meetings are designed to help you to understand the expectations and new routines for your child next year, as well as give you the opportunity to meet their new class teacher. As a staff we have carefully reviewed last year's plans and have further improved the planned content of these meetings to ensure that you are provided with the most essential information, as well as being given the opportunity to ask any questions you may have.

Part of our end of year analysis of attainment and progress, is to consider the academic and social mixes of each cohort and, like last year, we will, if we feel it will be of benefit to them, academically, socially or otherwise, move children. This process will take place with each dual cohort in school. We, like yourselves, want the best for your children and all decisions are taken with that in mind. The remainder of the term will enable teachers to trial the new class mixes wherever possible, always ensuring that the children are happy. Your feedback from your children will be much appreciated.

The classes and their teachers will be shared with you at the meetings. Thank you for your patience. A lot of careful thought and planning has and is taking place to ensure successful transition for all.

Please see below detailed staffing structure for next year.

We will be welcoming one new teacher to our team, Mr Hampton in Year 4. He will be with Mrs Boswell at the Year 4 meeting next week and I know that you will make him feel most welcome. Mrs Jackson continues her role as a non-class based Deputy Headteacher. Many congratulations to her and Mr Jackson as she is expecting her first child and will be going on maternity leave at October half term. This is a wonderful time for her and her family and I know that you will join me in celebrating this news and keeping her in your prayers. Mrs McDonagh will continue in her SENDCO and Pastoral role, monitoring learning and teaching across the school including our outdoor learning and wellbeing programme, as well as taking on teaching commitments to help support the absence of Mrs Jackson.

I really hope that the information meetings are as useful or even better than last year; as always there will be an opportunity for your feedback at those meetings, please spend a moment to do this, both positive and negative. We really do use your views to help us to improve

I know that I have said it many times but we really are blessed here at St Joseph's and I continue to look forward with excitement and enthusiasm to each new academic year. It always seems to come around so quickly!!

Yours in faith and partnership

Mrs Louise Bury
Headteacher
